

EAST SIDE TO THE WEST SIDE

Exhibition Dates: June 26 – August 15, 2014

Opening Reception: Thursday, June 26th, 6-8pm

There are roughly three New Yorks. There is, first, the New York of the man or woman who was born here, who takes the city for granted and accepts its size and its turbulence as natural and inevitable. Second, there is the New York of the commuter — the city that is devoured by locusts each day and spat out each night. Third, there is the New York of the person who was born somewhere else and came to New York in quest of something. Of these three trembling cities the greatest is the last—the city of final destination, the city that is a goal. It is this third city that accounts for New York's high-strung disposition, its poetical deportment, its dedication to the arts, and its incomparable achievements. Commuters give the city its tidal restlessness; natives give it solidity and continuity; but the settlers give it passion.

-E.B. White, Here is New York, 1949

The FLAG Art Foundation is pleased to present East Side to the West Side, an exhibition organized in collaboration with three Lower East Side galleries: Brennan & Griffin, James Fuentes, and Rachel Uffner, on view on FLAG's 9th floor from June 26 –August 15, 2014.

Just three miles southeast of Chelsea, the Lower East Side is recognized, both in the cultural landscape of New York and internationally, as an important epicenter for contemporary art. Offering an altogether different perspective and tenor than FLAG's immediate neighborhood of Chelsea, the LES has become renowned for supporting emerging artists and mounting experimental exhibitions. Carving out its own voice, the galleries in the LES occupy former tenements, industrial spaces, and storefronts, adding significant content and context to the discourse surrounding contemporary art. East Side to the West Side serves as an opportunity to bridge the physical distance between these two distinct districts, celebrating the diversity inherent to New York's artistic community.

East Side to the West Side highlights artists from the rosters of three distinctive and influential LES programs – Brennan & Griffin, James Fuentes, and Rachel Uffner – providing each gallery with its own show within a show. The artists in this exhibition represent a variety of backgrounds and creative practices. Brennan & Griffin presents Heather Guertin, Naotaka Hiro, and Dave McDermott, artists whose work examines figuration and the body, each engaging with art history while evincing a singular artistic position. James Fuentes presents a new series of paintings by Benjamin Senior and Michele Tocco that are collaborative in spirit, exploring the artists' interest in nineteenth and twentieth century French landscape painting, perception and representation, and the materiality of paint. Rachel Uffner presents a selection of gallery artists including the work of Bianca Beck, Joanne Greenbaum, Hilary Harnischfeger, Anya Kielar, Sam Moyer, and Sara Greenberger Rafferty, showcasing a myriad of formal approaches to painting and sculpture.

545 West 25th Street | New York, NY 10001

Summer Hours: Tuesday through Friday, 11am-5pm

www.flagartfoundation.org | info@flagartfoundation.org | 212.206.0220

James Fuentes opened in the winter of 2007 on St. James Place in Chinatown, before recently relocated 55 Delancey Street in the Lower East Side. The gallery represents a cross-generational group of artists with multi-disciplinary practices, specializing in historically significant work from the 1950's – 1990's. For more information: www.jamesfuentes.com

Brennan & Griffin is a Contemporary Art Gallery located on the Lower East Side of Manhattan. The gallery was opened in New York in the fall of 2010 by Kathryn Brennan and James Griffin. Brennan & Griffin evolved out of the gallery Sister which operated in Los Angeles from 2004 - 2010. For more information: www.brennangriffin.com

Rachel Uffner Gallery opened in Fall 2008 on Orchard Street in the Lower East Side. The gallery recently relocated to an expanded two floor gallery space at 170 Suffolk Street. At this new space we will give our represented artists the opportunity to expand their practice to a larger scale in a very flexible space, host a number of guest curated shows, as well as continue to develop the gallery's interest in showing historic works in relation to contemporary artists. For more information: www.racheluffnergallery.com

The FLAG Art Foundation is an exhibition space for contemporary art. The program includes four to six professionally-curated shows per year featuring works by established and emerging international artists. We are on the 9th and 10th floors of the Chelsea Arts Tower, located in the heart of New York's art district on 25th Street between 10th and 11th Avenues.

Our objective is to encourage the appreciation of contemporary art among a diverse audience. FLAG provides a unique educational environment in which visitors can view, contemplate, and engage in active dialogue with the artworks. Curators select and borrow from a variety of sources to include a wide range of work in each exhibition. FLAG is also a resource that facilitates loans of contemporary artworks to museums around the world. An extensive database of available works is maintained and made available to curators via info@flagartfoundation.org.